FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MAYOR NORRIS AND COUNTY SUPERVISORS
THOMAS & SNOW SPEAK
AT BLUE RIDGE APARTMENT COUNCIL LUNCHEON

Mayor Dave Norris, along with Members of the Albemarle County Board of Supervisors, Rodney Thomas (Rio District) and Duane Snow (Sam Miller District), spoke to the Blue Ridge Apartment Council at the Council's Quarterly Luncheon, March 16, at the Greencroft Club, in Ivy, Virginia.

The three local Dignitaries were asked their views on finding ways to operate City and County government within expected revenues and requesting local government and school employees to accept wage reductions in order to avoid future layoff.

Other topics discussed were limiting future spending growth, looking at the possibility of consolidating public services and the feasibility of the City sharing classroom space with the County.

The Blue Ridge Apartment Council (BRAC) is a non-profit organization comprised of Charlottesville, Virginia area property owners and managers committed to providing the best housing opportunities to our locale, while operating under the guidelines of both Federal and State Fair Housing Laws and the Virginia Residential Landlord and Tenant Act.

BRAC's 92 Property Managers offer nearly 11,000 listings of apartments and homes and its 51 Associate Members offer a host of products and services. Visit us at www.brac.com.

If you'd like more information about the topics discussed at the quarterly lunch or to learn more about the benefits of joining BRAC, contact Patrick Sprouse at 434-293-9000 or email Patrick at patrick@jeffersonridge.com
